

Table of Contents

1. Note from DSA's President	Page 3
2. Background and Objectives	Page 4
3. Executive Summary Overview: A Year of Transition for the U.S. Direct Selling Industry U.S. Direct Retail Sales at $35.54 Billion 20.5 Million People Are Involved in Direct Selling	Page 5
4. Economic Context U.S. GDP and Total Retail Sales Show Steady Growth in 2016 Unemployment Continues to Decline Consumer Expectations End Higher in 2016 than 2015 Retail Growth is Expected to Continue Strong E-Commerce Sales in 2016	Page 10
5. Estimated Direct Retail Sales	Page 15
6. Industry Dynamics Companies Under $3 Million Grew Substantially in 2016 Person-to-Person Selling Continues as the Dominant Sales Strategy Wellness and Service Categories Lead the Industry Wellness, Personal Care, and Energy Trends Retail Sales by Region Top 20 Largest Direct Selling Companies	Page 17
7. Industry Outlook	Page 23
8. Salesforce Statistics Size of Salesforce Grows to Record High Salesforce Segmentation Salesforce Remains Predominantly Female Salesforce Reflects the U.S. Population Number of U.S. Households Involved in Direct Selling Reaches New High	Page 25
9. Corporate Benchmarking Employees of Direct Selling Companies Corporate Philanthropy	Page 30
10. Methodology Company Participation for 2017 Other Data Sources	Page 32
11. Appendix Definitions Product Category Descriptions Endnotes Acknowledgements	Page 34

Only participating companies immediately receive a full copy of this report!